SECRET BALLOT PROCEDURES

Secret Ballots are used when appropriate in Council meetings, for example when electing the Deputy Mayor.

These procedures will govern, generally, how secret ballots work.

1. Where a matter has been identified as requiring a private ballot, the Mayor will call for nominations from the floor, and Council Members may nominate themselves if they wish. A secret ballot shall be carried out where there are two or more nominations to a position.
2. In the event that there are two or more candidates for the position, a Secret Ballot will be conducted by the CEO, generally using preferential voting (unless the Council decides to use a different method).

Example of preferential voting:

A preferential system with the elimination of the candidate with the lowest vote until a preferred candidate is left.

Candidate 1                      5 votes

Candidate 2                      4 votes

Candidate 3                      3 votes

Candidate 3 is eliminated and those three votes are distributed to the second preference demonstrated on the ballots. Let's assume candidate 3's second preferences all went to candidate 2, then the result will be:

Candidate 1                      5 votes

Candidate 2                      7 votes

Candidate 2 would be elected with a majority of the total votes cast on a preferential basis.

3. In the event of a tied vote, lots shall be drawn by the CEO, to determine who is excluded from the ballot. This is done by placing the tied nominee's names on identical pieces of paper, placing them in a receptacle so that no one can see the names on the paper and the CEO drawing names until only one nominee remains (of those on the tied vote). The name of the candidate/s withdrawn will be the one/s excluded from the ballot.
4. Secret ballots should be undertaken in adjourned Council so that nominees and the Mayor may cast a ballot. Once the result is determined, the adjournment ends and the result is confirmed by a formal resolution of Council.
5. While a ballot is undertaken, no conflict of interest arises for the nominees. For avoidance of doubt, the Mayor will be provided with a ballot, and may cast a ballot.
6. Once the result is determined and formal meeting procedures resume, the successful nominee may have a conflict of interest based on the position to which they have been nominated. All conflicts of interest must be declared at the appropriate time in accordance with legislative requirements.
